NORTH CAROLINA.—The returns from North Carolina, are so confused and conflicting as to warrant no certainty as to the result. It is, however, pretty generally conceeded that the conservatives carry the State, by from 1,000 to 2,000 majority. Next week we will be able to give the official vote.

EX-GOVERNOR ORR, of South Carolina, a life long Democrat is out in a strong letter urging the election of Gen. Grant to the Presidency.

—The Prairie du Chien (Wis.) Courier a Democratic journal is to be added to the list of those which refuse to advocate the election of Greeley.

HON. James Lyons, of Virginia, another prominent Democrat is also out in a letter endorsing Grant and the National Administration. "The banners hang on the outer walls, the cry is still they come!"

HON. CHAS. E. ELDRIDGE, the Democratic member of Congress from the Fourth Wisconsin district, announces that he is "unequivocally and unalterably opposed to Greeley, and in favor of Grant."

HON. ALEXANDER RANDALL, ex-Governor of Wisconsin, and Post Master General under President Johnson, died in Elmira, on Thursday night of last week, after a protracted illness, in the 53d year of his age.

WE have seen Mr. Charles R. Buckalew, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, at the moment of the Republic's greatest peril, stealing across the Canadian border to confer with the rebel conspirators, who had taken refuge there to put in execution their perfectly devilish plots for burning Northern cities, stimulating domestic rebellion and planting pestilence wherever they could send their emissaries. In addition to doing this, we have to say that CHARLES R. BUCKALEW, WHILE OCCUPYING A SEAT IN THE UNITED STATES SENATE, COMMUNICATED BY LETTER WITH THE LEADERS OF THE REBELLION IN THE SOUTH, EXPRESSING SYMPATHY FOR THEIR CAUSE! Men of Pennsylvania! Shall this man be your Governor?

IS HE HONEST?

The York Republican says: Charles R. Buckalew, the Democratic candidate for Governor, was chairman of the committee in the contested election case of M'Clure against Gray. The expenses of this committee were $26,669 11!

Among other items was a hotel bill at a Democratic house, of $2,394 35!

The committee was at this hotel not over a week, or ten days at the outside, and yet their personal expenses were about $359 each! Another item of this bill was $500 a piece for each member of the committee, in addition to their regular pay. Again, M'Clure and Gray were each voted $2,500 a piece for extraordinary expenses! All these expenditures were certified to as correct, by Charles R. Buckalew, the honest (?) and economical (?) candidate. Such economy (?) would soon swamp the State treasury.

HARTRANFT AND VICTORY.

Forney has been trying, for months, to persuade the Republicans who read his paper that it is not necessary to elect their State ticket to insure the success of General Grant in November, thus playing into the hands of McClure, Buckalew, Greeley & Company. This view of the subject, we are glad to know, is not entertained by the masses of the Republican party. The defeat of General Hatranft would peril the election of General Grant, and every true Republican looks at it in this light. The whole country is anxiously awaiting the result of our October election. Defeat will encourage the Democracy to more desperate efforts, and render the election of November a problem only to be solved at the polls. While in Philadelphia the other day, Senator Wilson remarked that "both parties were looking with intense interest to the October election in Pennsylvania." Our friends in other States expect us to do our duty and elect Hartranft and the whole ticket, and thus strengthen their hands for the great contest of November. Pennsylvania has the advance, the post of honor in the campaign, and with a united front she can and will win the first battle, to end finally in a grand and glorious victory on the fifth of November. Close up the ranks; stand to your guns men, and under the leadership of the heroic Hartranft you will march to certain triumph.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

SENATOR WILSON having over his own signature exposed and denounced the shameful and malignant forgeries by which he was made to appear as the insulter of foreign-born citizens and the enemy of human rights, it is now in order for Mr. Greeley, whose supporters have just now a great deal to say concerning his life-long devotion to the doctrines of human equality to explain how it happened that in the year 1856 he offered to make the Tribune the organ of the Know Nothing party of New York for a certain specified sum; and how it came about that at a public meeting held at Kingston, New York, in August, 1858, Horace Greeley advocated the passage of a law excluding foreign-born citizens from the right to vote until they had resided in the country 'as long as an American-born citizen exercising the same franchise." The first charge is made upon the authority of a man who stands ready to prove it whenever it is questioned, while the files of the New York Express—an ardent Greeley organ—will fully sustain the second count. Let our adopted fellow-citizens have the pleasure of hearing from Mr. Greeley on these matters.

MR. SUMNER, it is clear, will have to write another letter. In his first he is for Greeley because Grant was for acquiring San Domingo. It turns out, however, that Greeley indorsed Grant and supported the project for acquiring San Domingo! Which places Mr. Charles Sumner in an awkward position for a United States Senator, acting from such wonderfully high motives that few ordinary men can reach him. Furthermore, he opposes Grant because, as he alleges, he slighted Fred. Douglass, whereas Douglass himself is on the stump for Grant, without the least idea that he has been slighted. Again: He is for Greeley because he is a Republican and three millions of Democrats have come over to him; whereas the three millions of Democrats declare that they stand where they have always stood and that Mr. Greeley has come to them, and will be their instrument if he is elected. The weight of testimony, at any rate the number of witnesses, is against Mr. Charles Sumner. Clearly, he will have to write another letter.

GENERAL HARTRANFT has proved an able, efficient and honest officer, as the following figures tell: When he took charge of the Auditor General's office the debt of Pennsylvania aggregated $37,495,455,41!

At the close of General Hartranft's six years as Auditor General he reduced this debt to $28, 380,011 11; having in six years, without any increase of taxation and with the tax on real estate removed by a Republican Legislature, paid NINE MILLION, NINETY-FIVE THOUSAND, FOUR HUNDRED AND FORTY-FOUR DOLLARS AND ELEVEN CENTS.

THE Germania, the oldest German newspaper, in Cleveland, Ohio, which has favored the election of Greeley and Brown, has come round for Grant and Wilson.

SUMNER AND THE COLORED MEN.

A Washington dispatch states that "Sumner is receiving letters from all parts of the country complimenting his course." Why not? Brooks, who battered his head in the Senate Chamber for speaking against slavery and the insolence of its champions, would compliment him now, were he living. So will George Saunders and Benjamin and Forrest and all the rebel chieftains who hope that his last infamous charges against Grant may result in securing enough of the colored vote to elect Greeley. In this letter he followed in the wake of Greeley and sold himself to the conspirators against the government. The most ultra and sanguinary rebel could not have written a document better suited to the mind and feelings of the Southern supporters of the Baltimore ticket than this letter to the colored people of the South.

Its whole and sole aim is to influence the colored voters everywhere to repudiate the great soldier who hewed out the path with his own good sword which led to their emancipation from bondage of body and soul. His hatred—that is the proper word for it, it is nothing else for Gen. Grant appears to be little less than that of Wilkes Booth toward the martyr Lincoln, and in his attempts to stab the President's character by falsehood and calumny, unsupported by facts, he enacts the role of a political assassin. As frequently expressed heretofore in these columns, Sumner's egotism is something remarkable. Instead of losing any of its hitherto large growth, it becomes more immense in proportions as he advances in years. He conceives that there is but one man in the country, and that one is Charles Sumner, and to his dictation all others should bow in submission. He affects to consider that those whom he addresses must take his assertions without stopping to ascertain whether they be true or false, "because I, Charles Sumner, make them, and therefore you must believe them without doubting and without question."

In this appeal to the colored men of the South to support Greeley, the Senator will discover in time that they do not place the same estimate upon him that he does himself. They are not so ignorant as to be led by his sophistry into voting for a candidate who was willing to let the Southern States depart in peace, and retain the damnable institution of slavery. They know Greeley's record. They are aware of the fact that he was always an opponent of human bondage; but they are also aware of that other fact in history, that when the conspirators against the Republic were ready to spring the mine of secession, and war, Greeley wanted the Government to let them go, thus expressing his sanction to the retention of slavery and the riveting still firmer upon the blacks of the shackles of an infamous and accursed bondage. This they have not forgotten.

Deeds speak louder than words, and colored men everywhere realize that in General Grant they found their ablest, their noblest champion. He does not boast of what he did for them. It is not in his nature to brag about anything. No officer and no civillian ever heard him, even after his most splendid victories, use a single expression savoring of self-praise. He is a quiet man, who believes that a good deed is better than a whole volume of high-sounding phrases, and as such he is content to move along undemonstrative in his actions, to the discharge of all duties devolved upon him. For General Grant the colored people have a genuine affection, and to-day they would rather trust their welfare to his unselfish, generous nature, and positive character in the enforcement of the laws for their protection, than they would to the hands of a thousand boasting, pompous and irresolute Greeleys and Sumners. All the honeyed persuasions of the Massachusetts Senator cannot avail to change their feelings toward the soldier who liberated them by his genius and his sword, and the gentle-mannered President who has been their friend and their Protector.—Pittsburg Dispatch.

THE Warren Ledger, a strong Democratic-Greeley organ, laments that a number of leading Democrats are going to support General Allen for Auditor General. It need'nt make any fuss, as plenty others will follow in the same way. The people know Allen to be the right kind of a man, and all the lies and slanders that are told about him only add to his certainty of election.—East Brady Independent.

A LIE NAILED.

The People of Pennsylvania, will read the following letter which proves P. G. Meek a poor dirty liar.

SENATOR WILSON.

THE KNOW-NOTHING SPEECHES ASCRIBED TO HIM DENOUNCED AS FORGERIES—LETTER FROM THE SENATOR.

BOSTON, July 30.—The following letter from Senator Wilson has reference to speeches invented for him by political enemies to affect the foreign voters:

NATICK, Mass., July 29.

J. O. Culver, Esq., State Journal, Madison, Wis.:—

MY DEAR SIR: The mail has just brought me your note and extracts clipped from newspapers purporting to be speeches made by me. In answer to to your inquiries, I have to say that they, and all thought and words of like character which have appeared in the papers, are pure inventions, wicked forgeries, absolute falsehoods. Never have I thought, spoken, or written those words, nor anything resembling those words, nor anything that the most malignant sophistry could torture into those words. I could not have done so, for they are abhorrent to every conviction of my judgment, every throb of my heart, every aspiration of my soul. Born in extreme poverty, having endured the hard lot the sons of poverty are too often forced to endure, I came to manhood passionately devoted to the creed of human equality. All my life I have cherished as a bright hope and held and avowed as a living faith the doctrine that all men, without distinction of color, race, or nationality, should have complete liberty and exact equality. All the rights I asked pen for myself, my thoughts, my words my view, my votes, have been consecrated for more than thirty-six years to human rights. In the constitutional convention of Massachusetts; in eight years' service in her Legislature; in more than seventeen years' service in the Senate of the United States; in 1,300 public addresses; in the Press; in speeches and writing that would fill many volumes, and make thousands of pages; I have iterated and reiterated the doctrines of equal rights for all conditions of men. Is it not, my dear sir, passing strange that partisanship should so blind men to a sense of truth, justice and fair play that they could forge and print abhorent sentiments—sentiments insulting to God and man—and charge them upon one whose life has been given to the cause of equal rights at home, and whose profound sympathies were ever given to the friends of liberty of all races and nationalities abroad.

Yours, truly,
(Signed) HENRY WILSON.

A LOT OF MAD MEN.

Horace Greeley is mad because Grant would not allow him to control all the Federal appointments in New York.

Charles Sumner is mad because his literary friend Motley was not retained as Minister to England.

Carl Schurz is mad because the arms were not accidently sold to Germany instead of France.

Lyman Trumbull is mad because he could not have some half dozen appointments which he applied for.

Senator Fenton is mad because Grant would not allow him to control all the appointments in New York.

Hon. James M. Ashley is mad because he was removed from the Governorship of Montana territory.

Sam Bowles is mad because Charles Sumner is mad.

Horace White is mad because the Republican party favors protection of home industry.

Murat Halstead is mad because Horace White is mad.

Charles A. Dana is mad because he could get nothing higher from the administration than a Custom House Appraisership.

Cassius M. Clay is mad because he was recalled from his Russian Ministership for being engaged in speculating in Russian-American Telegraph stock, contrary to diplomatic usage.

Hon. Geo. W. Julian is mad because he was not renominated for Congress.

Gov. Blair is mad because he was not elected United States Senator.

Whitelaw Reid is mad because old Horace is mad.

Gen. Jack Casement is mad because he imagines Gov. Cox is mad.

Dr. Sterling is mad because the "Dutch whipped the French."

August Thieme, editor of the Watcher Am Erie, is mad because Carl Schurz is mad.

THE Tioga county Agitator says: "We have the most encouraging private advices from M'Kean and Potter. A handful of the ambitious would-be leaders of those counties are floundering in the mire of the Democratic-Liberal morass, but the rank and file of the party are untouched by their suicidal treachery. Even Gen. Kane finds himself without followers in his march toward the Democratic camp. Like Twiggs in Texas, he tried to turn over his forces, and finds he has surrendered only himself."

THE REASON WHY.

Apart from the overwhelming mass of corroborative evidence derived from various quarters going to show that, both at Cincinnati and Baltimore, the pressure that nominated Greeley came principally from the South, the Cincinnati Commercial—a Greeley paper, and therefore a credible witness—admits this to have been the fact. It has also been conclusively shown that before the nomination was made a clear, definite understanding was had between the parties to the transaction, relative to the tone of the administration in the event of Greeley's election. The country knows what the Southern supporters of Greeley expect, and it knows, too, that Greeley himself is fully conscious of the character of these expectations. Every day new proofs crop out going to show the nefarious and dangerous nature of the Baltimore truck and dicker. The Norfolk Virginian, a paper which carries the Grecley ticket at the head of its columns, not long ago declared that the South would never be pacified until the nation fully indemnified her for all she suffered and lost. It demanded—

"Ample compensation to the slave owner for the loss of his property by the act of the emancipation of his negroes, or its repeal at the option of the master, and the restoration of the slave to his former state of bondage, slavery, servitude and dependence from which he was liberated. The Southern States should also be fully compensated for the expense they incurred in defending themselves in an aggressive war of invasion on the part of the Free States. That is to say, the debts of the Confederation should be assumed and paid by the general government by a tax levied, not on consumers by a tariff, but by an assessment on all the real and personal property in the United States. This would be a compromise and concession on the part of the South, and the present national debt (about two thousand millions of dollars) being wiped out or repudiated, or put exclusively on the shoulders of the North, where it should and will ultimately be made to rest, the new assumed debt of the general government would be less than the war debt now is, and the tax laid for its payment entirely uniform and just. 'Disguise it as you will, to this form things will come at last."

Is it any wonder that Southern rebels should be so furiously enthusiastic in their candidates support, or that thoughtful and sober-minded men every where, without distinction of party, should instinctively shrink from having anything to do with a movement which threatens to bring such unnumbered misfortunes upon the country?—Pittsburgh Commercial.

GREELEYS ASSOCIATES.

The monthly statement issued from the national treasury show handsome balances in coin and paper on hand, thus proving the care and honesty with which the national financial affairs are conducted. But let Greeley get into power, with his Tammany and treason attachments, and the vaults which are now full of a nation's resources, will soon be cleaned out. It is just such a harvest as this that Boss Tweed and Jake Thompson are anxious to gather, and if Greeley gets power they will secure plunder. Here is what Greeley himself said of its inherent character, in its best days:

And what is this Tammany society? A secret, self-created, self-perpetuating cabal, mainly of aspiring politicians, with a few who once were but no longer. It is in essence as thorough an aristocracy as Sparta or Venice ever knew. It is an organized conspiracy to give to the selfish intrigues of the few the appearance and weight due only to the disinterested convictions and intelligent decisions of the many. It is a part of the game by which government is made to subserve the end of aggrandizing the directors of political machinery at the cost of the simple and credulous multitude.—New York Tribune, April, 1857.

It is on the votes of such men that Mr. Greeley relies to be made President, and these voters look to his success to repeat all the fearful transactions of which he has proved them guilty in the past.—State Journal

JOHN PARKER, Esq., well known to the workingmen of the Anthracite Coal regions, both as a champion of Labor Reform and a fine public speaker, has announced himself for Grant and Wilson. Mr. Parker is the editor of the Mahanoy Valley Record, a journal devoted to the interests of Labor, and in the last issue of his paper makes the following characteristic declaration:

"TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.—Circumstances make it necessary that we should define our position as to whether we can be induced to come out for Greeley. For the benefit of all who have formed an idea that we can, we say 'No gentlemen. We are for Grant, first, last and all the time, as long as we believe him to be an honest man, and this is the opinion we at present hold of him."

POLITICAL.

—The Camden, (Ala.) News & Pacificator, a Democratic Journal, refuses to support Greeley.

—In Allegheny county they have a Democratic Grant Club of two hundred and fifty members.

—Gov. Saulsbury, of Delaware, says two thousand Democrats of that little State will refuse to vote for Greeley.

—Judge David Davis, of Illinois, who was the Labor Reform candidate for President, has declared for Grant.

—The Buffalo Evening Post, for twenty-five years a staunch Democratic paper, hauled down the Dolly Varden flag and hoisted that of Grant and Wilson. Next!

—Of the twenty-seven Republican papers in Missouri which went with Gratz Brown and Schurz for State reform, all but one, Schurz's paper are out-and-out for Grant.

—Two hundred and thirty-seven Democrats have turned up in Allentown who refuse to obey the dictates of the Baltimore convention, and swallow the nauseating Greeley and Brown mixture.

—The Pottsville Standard thinks "Liberal Republicanism is a fraud and the transfer of the Democratic party to its management will in the end prove itself fraught with disaster instead of success."

—Hon. Patrick Corbett, a prominent politician of western New York, who has been claimed for Greeley, has written a letter to the Chairman of the Liberal County Committee declining to serve as a member of the committee, and giving his reasons for such action.

—Would Horace Greeley; if elected suspend the writ of habeas corpus in a South Carolina district where the Ku-klux were rampant? As an editor one year ago, he advised President Grant to perform this service for the cause of humanity. Now he denounces him for the same act. Who has changed?

—The Germania, the leading Democratic German paper of Cleveland, and of Northern Ohio, for twenty-five years past a straight Democratic organ, and also a Greeley paper, on Tuesday hauled down the Greeley flag and ticket, and came out strongly for Grant. This is another strong indication of the way the current is setting; and, taken in connection with the changes in the German press in New York, where every German paper except the little Tammany Journal now opposes Greeley, it is a very significant and important event.

—The Greensburg Argus, the Democratic organ in Westmoreland county, prints Mr. Greeley's letter of acceptance with chilling comments. For instance the following:

"It lacks one ingredient of a reformed sinner—confession of a past sinful life and sincere repentance. Repentance and the right kind of faith are necessary fruits of every true convert. Unfortunately, Horace has grown gray in very bad company. Since his advent in New York his political associates have been of the most abandoned and profligate characters. In early life he was taken by the hand and lifted from penury to affluence by men who were never influenced by an honest or patriotic motive."

—We find the following suggestive paragraph in the Binghamton Times: "We print in this number the names of 1,435 voters in this city who support Grant and Wilson. The total vote in the city this fall, for Secretary of State, was 2,330, of which Scribner (Republican) received 1,258; Willers (Democrat) received 1,051; and Leigh (temperance candidate) received twenty-one. Changes will take place every week from now until November, but they will be invariably in favor of Grant and Wilson. Greeley was stronger the day after he was nominated at Baltimore than he will ever be again.

—The Campaign in Wisconsin is progressing in a way to encourage Republicans. The Hon. Alexander Meggett of Ean Claire, one of the ablest and most prominent Democrats in the northwestern part of the State, and two years ago the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Seventeenth district, has declared his intention to take the stump for Grant. A careful review of the State shows that the Republican support of the Greeley ticket will be very light, and the Democratic support will be at least three times as great as all losses in that direction. Many persons who voted for Seymour four years ago have signed the Grant call in Madison, Wis. The city gave a majority for Seymour then, but, according to the Madison Journal, it will go for Grant now.

THE NASBY LETTERS.

MR. NASBY DREAMS A DREAM IN WHICH THE FUTURE OF A "GREAT AND GOOD" MAN IS FORESHADOWED.

CONFEDRIT X ROADS
(wich is in the State uv Kentucky),
May 24, 1872.

I am gettin old and am feelin my years. Time wuz when ten or a dozen drinks more than yoosual didn't make any difference with me, but it's quite different now. It tells on my old body, and I hev to be guardid.

We had a ratification meetin last nite, at wich I did indulge more than I shood, and I fell asleep in a chair at Bascom's and dreamed a dream.

In my dream I saw a high elevated plain, bounded on three sides by a steep, precipitue bluff. On the top of that plain (wich a pleasant and breezy place it wuz), and back somewhat from the edge of the precipice, stood that bildin wich is the Mecca to wich all Dimocrats hev been turnin their eyes for the past twelve years, the White House. On the very edge uv the precipice wuz a group uv individuals wich I hed no difficulty in indentifyin. There wuz Grant and Colfax, and around em stood Morton, Butler, Sherman, Shellaberger, and a thousand others uv sich, while over their heads their wuz a floatin in the air the spirits uv Washington, Adams, Jefferson, Linkin and all uv them decest individooals wich would hev sympathized with the Republikin party ef they had continyood in the flesh.

Down at the foot uv this precipice there wuz a low, swampy, marshy, malarious deestrik, which was the most uncomfortable seckshun uv kentry I ever see. The ground wuz full uv cest-pools, quagmires and quicksands. There wuz bones of niggers scattered all over it—there wuz rooins uv old skool houses; there wuz groceries and sloons scattered about it in wild profoosion; there wuz broken printin presses and the cheerful gallows-tree on wich John Brown hed bin hung wuz distinctly visible. Attemps hed bin apparently made to kiver up the burnt school-houses and broken printin presses and the gallows with resolooshens, but the kivering wuz too thin and they showed thro very plainly. This spot wuz tenanted by Boss Tweed and Hoffman, surrounded with Connolly, Oakey Hall, and all uv them fellows, and over their heads wuz the ghosts of Wigfall, Yancey and Benedict Arnold. I thought I saw his Majesty, Satan the I, sailing about with the ghost uv Yancey, but it might hev bin some one else. There wuz one quicksand marked where Seward went down—in a very bad smellin' pool Chase wuz floatin' about on a board marked "Supreme Bench," makin' feeble attemps to land somewhere. There wuz a few solid spots uv ground, Noo York, Kentucky and Maryland, and on them the livd men were standin. From this unpromisin' locality there wuz a path up to the heights above, but it wuz narrer, broken, crooked and steep, and besides that, passage from the lower to the higher region wuz desperately opposed by the array uv men who okkepied it.

I noticed that the party on the bluff all wore a sad expression. The ghost of Linken let fall a spirit tear, and Grant and Morton lookt ez sad ez tho they wuz losin their fathers. Colfax, in pertikeler, seemed inconsolable, and wuz a tearin his hair with greef. Curious to know wat it wuz that wuz causin all this commosben, I shifted my posishen so ez to get a view uv the entire arrangement, and I saw it at once. Tweed and Hoffman had histed up a long ladder to the top uv the rock, wich wuz really a curiosity. The sides wuz made out of hickory campane poles wich hed done servis from the time uv Polk down to Seymour, and the rounds were spokes from the wheels of Confedrit cannon. The ladder wuz labeled "Cincinnati," and the rounds "civil servis reform," "one term," and so on. Hoffman and Connolly wuz a holdin the feet uv the ladder steady, and Boss Tweed stood by em, holdin out a scroll labeled "Presidency." On the top ov the bluff stood Horris Greeley, clothed in glory, and perfeckly radient in his attire His old head was crowned with laurels—in fact he wuz a walkin arbor uv em. He hed one foot on the first round uv the ladder.

"Come back!" shouted Colfax.

"Come to us!" shouted the crowd below.

"Come back to your friends, you idiot!" said Morton.

"Come to us, and yoo shell hev this!" sed Tweed, flaunting the scroll.

That settled him. His face changed from the innocence uv the lamb to the hungry eagernis uv the wolf, and down he went. He made a misstep and parshelly fell, knocking off his laurels. His appearance changed. The ladder hed bin roughly made, and wuz full uv splinters. His ekal rites cloak caught on one uv em and wuz torn off. A nail head on the next round stripped off his proteckshen coat another on the next knockt his anti-coriupshen vest into smithereens, his civil rites pants wuz taken off by the next, and by the time he got to the fourth, he wuz divested uv everything under Heaven which made him sizable, and stood there shiverin in the wind, a mizable, deformed, weak, shaky, diminuative, shrunken man, with nothing under Heaven remarkable about him but his white hat, and the fact that he hed one boot and one shoe on. Tweed and his friends saw this shrinkin process going on ez he approached them, and they become alarmed.

"Good Lord!" sed Okey Hall, "ef he ain't any bigger and muskeler than he looks now we can't make any yoose uv him. He'll never be strong enough to pull us out uv this!"

Them on the bluff wich had regarded his deparcher with sich looks uv sadness, bust out into peels uv lafflure.

"There aint a hundreth part ez much uv him ez we sposed," shouted they. "We've nothing to fear from him!" and they laffed vociferously at the ridikulous figure he wuz a makin uv hisself.

All this time Horris wuz a standin on the One Term round uv the ladder, wich wuz the thinnest uv all uv em.

"Come down to us!" shouted Tweed.

"I can't go any further down than this!" replied Horris, shudderin ez he saw the plite he wuz in.

Whereupon Tweed and Hall and others run up the ladder to support him. They wuz drippin with the nastiness from the flum below, which kivered the poor old man ez they rubbed agin him. Then they threw upon him a Tammany and a Confederit flag. To keep him stiddy both uv em run up the ladder and got on the round. Sam Sinclair, John Cockran and sum others come down close behine him to assist, and the yoonited weight was too much. The ladder broke in two and Tweed, Hoffman, Greeley, Sinclair, Triboon and all plunged into the quagmire. There was a splash, a guggle or two and the entire bilin uv em sunk out uv site.

The splash awoke me and I meditated a half hour over a singler dream afore takin' another drink and goin home. "Kin it be," thot I, "that all there is in Horris is his Republikinism?" It hez trooly bin so with all our venchers. Chase come to us, but when he stepped over the line he left all his strength behind him. Seward insted of bein a help to us proved to be a load to carry. Hev we taken Horris to our buzzums only to find him a helpless dead weight to be carried insted of a Grant strong enuff to carry us? Is the Cincinnati ladder too weak to hold Greeley and us uns, and will it break down with our yoonited weight? I fear me.

And pensively I dreamed my glass, and carelessly goin thro the regler form uv tellin Bascom to mark it down, went sadly home. I fear me the day uv our deliverance isnt yet at hand.

PETROLEUM V. NASBY,
(Wich wuz Postmaster.)

THE Beaver Conservative declines to shout for Greeley and Brown, and advises Democrats to "wait." "Horace Greeley and Gratz Brown," says that paper, "are both Republicans. They are Republicans by their own confession of the most radical stamp. They may or they may not be better than Grant. They are not better than a Democratic candidate; we are not without hope that there may yet be found in the Democratic party a statesman fit to be President of the United States. Wait and see! We do not feel like all at once surrendering our party to a few sore-headed Republicans. It may be for the benefit of the country to do so. But we do not as yet realize the situation."

The editor is devoutly thankful that "Pennsylvania was not one of the States which went united, roaring and drunken into the degrading consummation!"

WE make the following quotation, which doubtless expresses the sentiments of many Democrats:

"Some day the men who believe and say they own the party, will tell us why they did it. If they do not furnish good old-fashioned Democratic candidates, and good old-fashioned Democratic principles, to thrust upon us a couple of abolitionists and a platform of abolition manufacture, there is a day of reckoning for them, whether Greeley is elected or not.

"We believe there was no difficulty to elect Democratic candidates, if the Democratic party is able to elect Republicans. For the Democratic party have got to elect Greeley and Brown.

"Buckalew would have beaten Hartranft in October, with Hendricks, Seymour or McClelland for a Presidential candidate, much easier than he will running in the dusky shadow of Greeley.—If Pennsylvania had voted in October for Buckalew, she would have voted in November for the Democratic candidate for President, and the vote of Pennsylvania would have decided the Presidential contest. Again we ask, why was this golden opportunity thrown away? Some one can answer, why?

"In the meantime, we say to Democrats, be patient; wait for the development of that which is to come."

Buckalew, And The Draft.

In 1863 an armed Democratic organization, says the Beaver Radical was formed in Columbia county, (Mr. Buckalew's county), to resist the draft. Its career was known as the "Fishing Creek Rebellion," and the misguided men who were led to this excess by the teachings of Buckalew and other leaders, went to the length of throwing up fortifications to repel the soldiers of the United States. It was suppressed finally after much trouble and expense by the military authorities. A word from Mr. Buckalew would have terminated it, but the word remained unspoken, while Mr. Buckalew sat in silence in the Senate of the United States, dreaming of cumulative voting and smiling at the struggle of the Government for life.

Murdering the Republican Giant.

A VISION OF MR. NASBY.

Our old friend, Petroleum V. Nasby, has experienced another series of frightful dreams, which he communicates to the Toledo Blade from the Confederate X Roads on June 22. After relating several dreams of a minor political and domestic nature he proceds at length to describe an attempt to poison the Republican giant. He says:

Methawt I wuz in a bildin, where I coodent make out. Stretched out onto a couch and kivered with a flag, wuz the body uv an enormous giant—the most huge and comprehensive giant I had ever seen, even in dreems. His legs wuz like pillars, his arms wuz like beams, and his hands spread out like the map uv our wunst happy but now opprest country. He seemed to be in the last stages uv a fearful sickness. He hed bin, in his day, a giant uv immense strength and wuz even in his illness ez handsome a human bein ez I ever set eyes onto. But it wuz evident that he wuz going fast. He drawd his breath painfully, and from ugly wounds on his body blood oozed slowly but depletinly.

"Who is he?" I asked uv the Goddess uv Liberty, which sot at his head in deep mournin and weepin violently.

"That's Republicanism," she answered, "the only actooal, ginuine friend I ever hed—the only one who reely stood by me. But they are killin him That gash in his back Chase gave him; that stab in the side was inflicted by Randall; the itch wich so irritates him he caught from the Blairs, and—good Heaven! here comes another squad uv his enemies"

I looked, and lo! Boss Tweed, Hoffman, Seymour, Hendriks, and a dozen uv my pertikeler friends were coming in. They had masks on their faces made of Noo York Triboons, but I knowed 'em for that. Hoffman seezed the head uv the prostrait giant, while Tweed poured down his throat a nousous flooid from a jug marked "Cincinnati," fairly forcin it down him. The victim shuddered ez he swallered it, ez if it was his last and final shudder.

"Yoo've killed him!" shrieked the Goddess.

"We bleeve we hev, madam!" shouted the fellows in korus, pullin off their masks, "and you'll foller him within a yeer."

"Kill her, now!" yelled one of 'em, who wuz evidently from Georgy, "she ain't got her champion to save her this time."

And they seezed her and gagged and bound her, with frightful yells.

And in their joy they execooted a most demoniac war dance about the corpse, in which I jined, with an ajility I didn't know I wuz possessed. But jist ez our exhultation wuz at its highest the corpse gave a fearful gasp—a convulshen uv ten hoss power. He riz up from the couch, assoomed a sittin position his face uv a deathly paleness, and with a retch that shook the buildin, vomited ez I never saw a human bein vomit.

"Good Heavens!" shreeked Tweed; "We've given him too much of the pizen and it's actin ez an emetic."

The sick man gave heave after heave, and in the flood uv bile which he ejectid I saw Greeley, Gratz Brown, Schurz, Cox and a score uv sich. A very gentle heave landed Schurz and Gratz Brown on the floor; a little bigger one threw out Fenton, and a gigantic one, wich convulsed the sufferer from centre to circumference, histed out Greeley. But, once over, it wuz a tremenjus relief to the sick individooal.

Immejitly a great change come over him. The moment they wus off his stumick the palenis disappeared—a healthy color came to his cheeks and his weaknis all left him. Glarin about furiously, he put one foot on Greeley and Brown and their mizable companions, ez a man chrushes beetles, with the other he kicked the jug out uv the winder, which jug wuz followed by Tweed and his friends, who went through the same apertoor, propelled by the same motive power. He cut the bonds off the goddess, tore off her mournin, and wuz in the act uv embracing uv her when I awoke.

I lay four hours cogitatin over this dream. Wuz it prophecy or biled pork? That's the conundrum. Is it a warnin uv judgement to come, or is it a disordered stumick? Hev we dosed the Republikin party too freely with Cincinnati, and hez wat we fondly hoped wood be pizen enuff to kill our great enemy, goin to be an emetic wich will rid him uv the disturbin humors wich wuz a destroyin uv him, and make him stronger than ever?

WILL VOTE FOR GRANT.—"Very well sir," a Democrat was overheard to say the other day, "since my party has confessed that Republican ideas are right and the negro amendments to the constitution, and all the black Republican legislation of past years are to be maintained, I do not intend to be humbugged by sham, but shall go the whole Republican ticket and vote for Grant, who carried out the principles and executed the laws enacted by that party."

"OF all the prominent men in the country," says shrewd old Jere Black, Horace Greeley is the only one who lacks every single qualification for the Presidency."

The Political Situation in Schuylkill County.

At the meeting of the Republican county committee, yesterday, the members of which represent every section of the county was canvassed. What we have repeatedly stated is confirmed.—While the Republicans of Schuylkill are solid for their principles and candidates, the Democracy are seriously disaffected. No enthusiasm for Buckalew can be elicited, while hundreds of Democrats, if they vote at all at the November election, will vote for General Grant. Everything looks well, with proper organization and work, to make such inroads upon the ranks of the Democracy this fall as will jeopardize the majority which they have heretofore had in this county when party lines were drawn. By years of labor the Republicans of Schuylkill have reduced the Democratic majority to less than a thousand, and this year they can, if the right exertions are used, wipe it out altogether. The prospect was never more cheering for such a happy result. —Pottsville Journal.

THE Indiana Progress (Indiana county, Pa.) says: "For every Republican who talks of voting for Greeley, six Democrats can be found who talk of either voting for Grant or not voting at all. It would not surprise us if Indiana county gave Grant nearly 3,000 majority in November."

And again: "A number of Democrats in this county claim that the action of the Baltimore Convention has relieved them from all obligations to support the ticket as members of the Democratic party, and they are now free to vote as they please, and they please to vote against Greeley. They are right. Many Democrats will now vote for Grant; others are looking forward for something to turn up at Louisville."

ANOTHER REBEL FOR GREELEY.—Harry Gilmore, the notorious guerrila of Maryland during the rebellion, and who was with the party who applied the torch to Chambersburg, and Bradley Johnson, keeper of the Sallsbury (North Carolina) prison, where so many of our brave boys were starved to death, were the chief spirits getting up the ratification meeting held in Baltimore over Greeley's nomination. When such notorious men as these espouse the Greeley cause, it is time for patriotic men to consider thoughtfully what would be the influence which they would undoubtedly exert if Mr. Greeley should be elected.

AN exchange says: "There can be no doubt that Horace Greeley has been the most inveterate trafficer in office in this country. His application for office incumber every department in Washington, and he has recommended more bad men to office than any politician of his time, except Fenton, whose supporters are all drawn from the people of his own class. Greeley's office-seeking has been a mania with him for years past. We shall give some instances shortly of the rascals he has contrived, at one time or another, to saddle upon the country."

OPPOSED TO GREELEY.—Little Delaware, famous for whipping posts and other relics of barbarism, held her State Democratic Convention the other day, and passed resolutions denouncing Grant in the bitterest terms, and declaring the 13th, 14th and 15th amendments to the constitution a fraud upon the people, and calling for a straight Democratic ticket.

AT Towsontown, (Md.) Wm. S. Keech, senior editor of the Democratic paper the Baltimore County Herald, publishes a card in his paper of the 13th inst., announcing that he will have nothing to do with its political management until after the election, and that he will under no circumstances vote for Greeley. John J. Yellott, Esq., the junior editor, will support the Baltimore nominees.

THE Pottsville Standard, a leading Democratic paper says: "We are entirely conscientious in our belief that in a numerical sense, "Liberal Republicanism," so-called, is both a sham and a fraud, and consequently, this transfer of party representing three million voters to the management of a political myth, will in the end prove itself fraught with disaster instead of success.

——"May the Supreme Being direct otherwise, for Greeley is not our choice, nor do we wish to pollute the columns of the 'Monitor' with his name nor publish anything in his defense. To support an Abolitionist for office, would be degrading ourselves and the cause we espouse."—'Fayette Monitor,' (Dem.) Connelsville, Pa.

THERE is an extensive break in the Democratic ranks in Virginia. Many prominent members of the party are against Greeley, and a number of them are out for Grant. Judge Robinson, of Charlotteville, John W. Jackson, of Fluvanna, John H. Gilmore, Col. Mosby ex-Governor Wise, and many others are named in one or the other classes.

THE Brockport (N. Y.) Democrat, always a true party paper, refuses to support Greeley and Brown, and declares that "between the two Republicans" it will have "no hesitancy in supporting Grant."

TAKE YOUR COUNTY PAPER.—"Wal, Squire, you say you don't take your county paper."

"No, Major. I get city papers on better terms, and so I take a couple of them."

"But Squire, these county papers are a great convenience to us; the more we encourage them the better the editor can make them."

"I don't know that they are any convenience to me."

"The farm you sold last Spring was advertised in one, and you thereby obtained a customer."

"Very true Major, but I paid three dollars for it."

"Now if the neighbors had not maintained that press, you would have been without the means of publishing your daughter's marriage, and your brother's death last Summer."

"Yes, yes, but."—

"And when your nephew was a candidate for the legislature, you were highly gratified at his newspaper defence, which elected him and cost nothing."

"Yes; but these little things are news to the readers, and make the people take the papers."

"No, no, Squire, not if they are all like you, now. I tell you, Squire, the day will come when somebody will write a long eulogy on your life, character, etc., and the printer will put in type, with a heavy black rule under and over it, and with all your riches, this will be done for you as a grave for a pauper. Your wealth, liberality, and all such will be spoken of; but the printer, as he spells the words in arranging the type, will remark: "Poor, mean, devil, he never took the paper, and is now swindling the printer out of his funeral notice." "Good morning."

THE Chicago Times wants to know if there are any Democrats—if so, what they are going to do, there being no Democrat for Presidential candidate. We quote:

"If there are any Democrats in this country, what are they going to do with their Democracy? What good will it do them with either Greeley or Grant in the presidential office, and a servile majority in Congress supporting a Greeleyite or Grantite administration. How under such circumstances, can they expect a resurrection of Democratic principles? With no organization to assert Democratic ideas, and make those ideas a power which office-mongers and patronage-dispensers will feel and respect, how will Democracy ever again become the guide of government?"

"The Times has warned Democrats that the Greeley business meant not only the annihilation of the Democratic party, but the enternel banishment of the Democratic doctrine from the practice of government. Facts are already demonstrating the truth of that warning. We tell you, American Democrats—you who believe in Democratic principles as firmly as in your religion—that Democratic freedom never was in greater peril on this continent than at this time. You cannot save it by temporizing with its enemies. You can only hope to save it by asserting your principles, and by organizing a moral and physical power in defense of such assertion of what you honestly believe to be truth. To resurrect your principles, you must dare to assert them with all the force you can exert."

THE Columbia Spy, asks the following questions:—Can any one tell why men cannot pay small bills, can always find money to buy liquor, and treat, when happening among their friends?

Can any one tell why young man who dodge their washerwoman, and are always behind with their landlords, can play billiards night and day, and are always ready at a game of cards?

Can any one tell how men live and support their families who have no income and do not work, while others who are industrious and constantly employed are half-starved?

Can any one tell how it is that nine-tenths of the mothers are so ready to sew for the distant heathen, when their children at home are ragged and dirty?

Can any one tell why four-fifths of the young women prefer a brainless fop under a plug hat, especially if he comes from some metropolis, with tight pants and a short tailed coat, to a man with some brains, who is well known in the neighbor-hood?

ONE Southern Democratic paper, the Georgia Constitutionalist, is able to pick out from its exchange list one hundred and fourteen Democratic papers that refuse to support Greeley; and these papers represent the constituency that must support Greeley unanimously, or there is no show for his election.

IT is worthy of note that the resolutions at each of the national conventions this year were reported by Hartford men and journalists—Gen. J. R. Hawley, of the Courant, at the Republican, and Alfred E. Burr, of the Times, at the Democratic convention.

BOLTING Democratic journals are multiplying. The Terre Haute (Ind.) Journal and the Seymour Democrat, leading journals in Indiana, refuse to support Greeley. The Savannah (Ga.) News, of the same party, says that Grant will beat Greeley 20,000 in that state.

THE Los Angelos Daily News, a leading Democratic paper of California, epposes the Baltimore nominations.

A PLEASANT kind of husbandry—removing widows' weeds.

THE REPUBLICAN FOR THE CAMPAIGN. CLUBS! CLUBS!

We are now about commencing another great battle for the salvation of the Union, and perpetuity of free Government, of Republican Institutions. We have the same enemy to contend against, the same party and faction that trampled the old Flag—the Star Spangled Banner, under their feet in 1861, and that fired upon Fort Sumpter. We punished them then for their treason, we must not permit them now, since they have assumed another shape, to secure through the ballot box, what they failed to secure through four years of bloody war—the dissolution of the Union, and the formation of a Southern Confederacy.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of Liberty." We must be active.

We must be watchful and ever on the alert. We must circulate papers and documents in order that every voter may fully understand the issues and vote intelligently in the approaching fall elections.

To this end we offer the BELLEFONTE REPUBLICAN from the 1st of August to the 1st day of December, 1872—FOUR MONTHS—for 60 cents to single subscribers, or to clubs of FIVE, TEN, TWENTY or more at 50 cents per copy.

Now, let our active energetic friends bestir themselves and send in LARGE CLUBS from every township and Borough in the county. IN EVERY CASE THE MONEY MUST ACCOMPANY THE ORDER. Get up the clubs. Send in the names and money.

TERRE HAUTE.

MASS MEETING OF COLORED CITIZENS—SUMNER'S ADVICE REPUDIATED.

TERRE HAUTE, IND., August 1.—At a mass meeting of the colored voters of this county held in this city this evening, the following preamble and declaration was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, Senator Sumner has written a letter to the colored voters of the United States advising them to follow him in his desertion of the Republican party; therefore we, the colored voters of Vigo county, Indiana, in mass meeting assembled, deem it proper to declare—

1st—That while we honor Mr. Sumner for his great labors and sacrifices in behalf of our race, and are profoundly grateful to him for the good which he thereby nobly wrought, we recognize no claim on his part that requires us to follow his leadership out of the only party that has ever befriended us, or whose record gives hope of future friendship.

2nd—Believing that general Grant will in the future as he has in the past be true to Republican principles and faithful to enforce all laws designed to protect us in the fullest enjoyment of all our rights, we do hereby unanimously declare that he is entitled to and shall receive our most cordial support in the present canvass.

3rd—We most earnestly urge the colored voters of the United States to beware of the new alliance between the inveterate enemies of our race and a few disappointed Republicans, and we declare our firm belief that there is no safety for us except in the triumph of Republican principles through the election of Grant and Wilson.

4th—In the language of Fred. Douglass we declare that for our race the Republican party is the deck and all else the sea.

AN Iowa paper has been examining the names of Grant and Greeley, and tells the result thus: "Both have the same handle, Gr. One has the suffix ant, which means industrious, prudent, full of work, foresight and energy, and the other has the suffix eel-y, which means wriggling, slippery, and not twice in the same place.

For the REPUBLICAN.

MEEK IN A NEW ROLE.

MESSRS EDITORS:—We have been amused at the political spasms, exhibited in the Watchman of the 26th inst., of the redoubtable Peter G. Meek, who "under the weather" and in his demoniacle hilarity exclaims "that Ex-Gov. Curtin, will be home by the middle of August, to take the stump for Buckalew," and then asserts, that, "if Gov. Curtin comes home and advocates the election of Buckalew, that Centre county will be good for 1200 majority against any radical candidate."

Here is a change of base by Meek, equal to Greeley's—who looks to the Democrats to elect him President—and Meek looks to the Republicans to elect Buckalew, and to Gov. Curtin to come home and increase the Democratic majority in Centre county. Is this not admitting that there is a screw loose in Centre county? And he prays for Gov. Curtin, whom, for ten years, he has villified and slandered, to come and help the sinking Democracy, to elect Buckalew, and give them a big majority in Centre county, which Meek admits, he and his Watchman cannot do. He, therefore, cries out to Gov. Curtin,

"Help us (Curtin) or we sink."

He then becomes infatuated with his maligunant hallucination—hair fixed on end like bristling porcupine, and with fixed teeth—yells forth that "the knowledge of these facts (Curtin's coming home) have had the effect of frightening Mr. James Milliken from trying to secure the nomination for Congress, entirely off the track. It has broken the budding aspirations of Wm. P. Wilson. It has opened the eyes of Ed. Blanchard, Esq." &c.

"When the skies, fall we will catch larks." But how complimentary to Gov. Curtin, to make a Blue-beard of him, and set him to killing his devoted friends, merely to gratify P. G. Meek, the political Cateline of the straight-out Democracy of Centre county, who, with that tax embezzler D. F. Fortney, Chairman of the County Democratic Committee, called the clan to meet at Meek's Hall. When, lo! and behold!! out of 36 members, there appeared 12 dupes, who undertook to instruct Ed Perks, the Delegate to the Baltimore Convention, to vote for a straight-out Democrat for President. But Ed Perks knew Meek and Fortney, and their political standing with that party. He knew that the road to glory was to disregard and treat with contempt the instructions of Meek and Fortney, and he and Jim Burns, voted for Greeley. And because the REPUBLICAN twited the Watchman upon the contempt with which it was treated, by these representative Democrats, Meek, in the article referred to "under the weather," vents his spleen by saying; "A clear track is now left in this County for Ex-Doctor Brown (for Congress) who, as a friend remarked the other day does not expect, or does not want to make the nomination, but expects and wants to make something by selling the Conferees of the County to some one in the District." &c.

How Meekish this is? Born in loves despite, and natives scorn, he ever labors to bring every man to the level of his own corrupt and dishonest nature. From a Lazarus sitting at the Democratic gate, we find him now talking of his, Meek's Hall, and other property to the value of some $20,000.

This he never made by printing the Watchman, nor does he pretend to say that he ever did, by it, do more than keep things square. But with four Sessions in the Legislature he becomes the recipient, and present taker of corrupt Rings.

The editor of the Centre Hall Reporter charged him, while in the Legislature, of corrupt practices, and sustained its charges by referring to the Philadelphia Age. The Age charged Meek and two other Democrats on that Committee with assisting Senator Deckert's city bill, for pay. And Meek never denied his peculation in the passage of the "Big Sandy" swindle, and many other "Local Bills," never asked for by his constituents. Moreover, to cover up his rottenness and bribe taking propensities, he had the "Local Publication Bill," so far as Centre county was concerned repealed, to keep the people in ignorance of what he really was doing, in the way of big steals and numerous bribes.

He delights, in his own house, in showing visitors the handsome presents he received as a member of the Legislature; but he will never tell on what account, or upon what occasion they were presented. Some others do, and part may out.

But, is not P. G. Meek, a pretty animal to charge any person with selling out? True, he has nothing to sell in that way, now, and some of his party say he never will have again, that his present course on the Presidential question is well understood; that his former cry of stick to the ticket, only meant when he succeeded in a nomination by forgery and slander. He never, under other circumstances said stick to the ticket. And they also say; that he has undertaken to sell out the seat in the next Legislature, and now wants to annul the sale in favor of some higher bidder.

Can he not draw straws, or cuts? It is said $500 00 were made not long since by drawing straws.

But if the people are true to themselves, they will, not only nominate W. W. Brown for Congress; but elect him in spite of Meek and his few adherents. The workingmen of all parties know Col. Brown, and know that we can depend upon him, for he has always been our friend. JAKE.

MILESBURG, July 29, 1872.

THE PRESIDENTIAL PLOT.

[From the Boston Globe, Independent.]

There was never a more shallow and utterly false pretense than the assertion that the nomination of Greeley at Cincinnati was the spontaneous result of a great popular uprising. The movement was planned and executed by a few desperate and unpricipled politicians, in the spirit of intrigue and dishonesty. The only honest element which there was in the Cincinnati gathering, the free trade reformers, was jockeyed and cheated by a juggling platform, which ignored the tariff question and sent it back to the people, and by an insulting nomination of a "ferocious protectionist" as a candidate for free trade voters. The nomination of Greeley was a plot of his own planning; and to bring it about, while pretending to be still a Republican and claiming confidence and support for his newspaper as a Republican organ, he was plotting and conspiring disaffected men, North and South, who wished at any price to overturn the government and inaugurate a new era, or rather to restore the Bourbonism of the past.

More than a year ago Greeley begun this dishonest course, this double-dealing, and undertook his famous pilgrimage to Texas for the purpose of arousing Southern sympathizers and preparing way for his availability as the Democratic candidate of 1872. The particulars of his interviews with Jeff. Davis, Wade Hampton, and other magnates of the ex-confederacy, have not been disclosed to the public; but the tenor of these conferences can readily be inferred from the advice which the Southern leaders promulgated to their people about that time; telling them to make no movement but to lie low, and watch their opportunity when a division in the majority party of the North should open the way to success. That division Mr. Greeley was to lead, and the discontented element of the South was to join it in the full assurance that Southern rights should be restored, and the progressive action of the last ten years reversed. With this clear understanding between the contracting parties, founded upon the old sympathies and new assurances, what wonder that Mr. Greeley should receive, as he says he did, many applications from the South to become the Democratic candidate in 1872?

After laying the Southern train, we find Greeley in October last, while still appearing under the Republican guise to the public and the readers of his newspaper, in close consultation with leading Democrats in New York State as to becoming their candidate and making an artful display of the many applications which had reached him from the South. The result was that Seymour, Hoffman and Carmichael and the whole Tammany Ring agreed to take him, and he pledged himself to them as their candidate. In the middle of October he was formally presented at Oswego as the Democratic candidate, and there acknowledged the arrangement which had been made. This arrangement he communicated to the prince of political schemers, Reuben E. Fenton, also of Republican antecedents, and got his endorsement of the plan. In order to render Greeley stronger still with the Southern section of the conspiracy, it is proposed by his newfound friends to raise a new issue for the campaign by suggesting that the pension laws be extended to disabled rebel soldiers and the immaculate Horace writes a letter to Carmichael expressing himself in favor of the measure! This letter has doubtless ere this been communicated to the Southern ring for effect there, though the plan is not avowed openly, for fear of its effect upon the North.

Greeley thought it prudent to wear his Republican mask yet a little longer, but promised that the tone of the Tribune should be changed about January, 1872. It is needless to say that the promise has been kept. Next came the Cincinnati necromancy. As early as April last, Greeley advised his friend Carmichael that some Democrat should go to Cincinnati in order to secure his nomination there, and suggested that Carmichael should be the man. Seymour wrote soon after to Waldo Hutchins of New York, as to what the Democrats would do for Greeley, and the result was that Hutchins and Greeley, and others of his associates, published in the Tribune, over their own signatures, a free trade call to Cincinnati. When the convention was assembled, Senator Fenton was on hand, as busy as Lucifer in a gale of wind, and doubtless Carmichael with his pension letter. The result is that Greeley is nominated, not by a popular uprising, but as planned and agreed by the conspirators.

But the plan is not yet consummated. He is now to be turned over to the Baltimore Convention, which was done with the full assurance that the Tammany plotters and secession leaders would carry out their part of the bargain. That also is done, and with another farcical pretense of popular uprising. And it is for a candidate thus stigmatized with false pretenses, political fraud and conspiracy, that honest people are expected to vote!

SOUTHERN OPINION OF GREELEYISM.

THE DEMOCRATIC DANGER.

[From the Columbus Daily Sun, Democratic.]

History repeats itself. The war cry now of these same leaders is, put aside all your long-tried friends, turn them aside when honors are bestowed, and seek friends among our enemies. Greeley, they say, is the only man to beat Grant—and save the South!—How do they know this fact? We deny the assertion and call for the proof. From our information, Greeley is weak, and growing more so every day. We do know that any good Democrat can receive three millions of votes while the Greeleyites may not muster only a few thousand. We believe that Northern Democrats are just as anxious to vote for Grant as the Southerner to vote for Greeley. If we go into the camp of the enemy to select our tried commander it will discourage our own well-tried generals, and defeat will certainly await us. We must subordinate policy to principle, or even honor will be lost, and the Democracy ruined past recovery. If the Greeleyites favor constitutional principles as advocated by Democrats, the defeat of Grant could be more certainly consummated by a few thousand coming over and joining the ranks of millions. This is sensible, and it will be as true in statesmanship and politics as in matter and philosophy, that the smaller will always easily gravitate to the larger body.

THE DISHONORED DEMOCRATIC GRAVE.

[From the Norfolk Daybook, Democratic.]

And so, when the politicians at Baltimore shall have flung their principles to the winds, and, with "anything to beat Grant" for their motto, have taken refuge under Greeley's old white hat, preparations for the final obsequies of the Democratic party may at once be made. It will die in disgrace, and will sink into a dishonored grave, with none to mourn its loss. And in that political sleep, that shall know no waking, will repose together the men who would betray the Democratic party into the hands of the executioner for the sake of power and place. The epitaph of Horace Greeley may be written thus: "Here lies the Judas Iscariot of American politics. He bartered his soul for pieces of silver. Though—less successful than his prototype—he failed to grasp the price of his treachery."

DOES any one seriously suppose the Democratic party has changed since the 23d of March, 1871? Does Horace Greeley honestly believe his description of its character is any less true to-day than it was on that day last year? And yet at that date he said in the Tribune:

The Democratic party of to-day is simply the rebellion seeking to achieve its essential purposes within and through the Union. A victory which does not enable it to put its feet on the necks of the black race seems to the bulk of its adherents not worth having. Its heart is just where it was when it regarded slavery and the constitution as two names for one thing. It hates the generals who led the Union armies to victory, and rarely misses a chance to disparage them. It clings to that exaggerted notion of State rights, which makes them the shield of all manner of wrongs and abuses. It takes counsel of its hates even more than of its aspirations, and will be satisfied with no triumph that does not result in the expulsion of all active, earnest Republicans from the South.

After the expression of such an opinion Greeley proves himself a knave in expecting Democrats to vote for him while those who do, well show they are asses.

HERE are a few questions which we would like to have answered by some of the friends of Judge Thompson, the Democratic candidate for Supreme Judge:

During the war did he not declare the law to raise men for our armies to be illegal?

During the same time did he not declare the law to raise money to pay our armies to be illegal?

Was he not on the Bench when the position of Prothonotary of the Court—his son-in-law being Prothonotary—was used to manufacture fraudulent naturalization papers to send over the State to aid in fraudulently carrying the State for the Democrats?

Did he not decide in favor of the State in the Credit Mobelier case, and thereafter in the same case, decide against the State losing our Commonwealth $3,000,000?

MANY persons suffer with sick headache and nervous headache, usually induced by costiveness indigestion, &c. Such persons will find relief if not cure, by keeping the bowels open with small doses of Parsons' Purgative Pills.

Have you inflammatory sore throat, stiff joints, or lameness from any cause whatever? Have you rheumatic or other pains in any part of the body? If so, use Johnson's Anodyne Liniment. Our word for it, it is the best pain killer in this country.

ONE OR THE OTHER IS SURE.—Here are two medicines—"Hoofland's German Bitters," and "Hoofland's German Tonic." If you are Dyspeptic Bilious, or all of them, one of these peerless Vegetable Specifics will, assuredly, effect a cure. If you are in doubt which one to take, try each alternately. Adopt the one which operates most beneficially. Neither can harm you. Possibly, it may be best to take each in turn. One or the other, or both, can be guaranteed to work a perfect cure. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS | NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

A NEW CANDIDATE FOR PUBLIC FAVOR.

THE NEW VICTOR SEWING MACHINE!

THE NEW VICTOR SEWING MACHINE!

BY ONE WHO KONWS:

A good sewing Machine I long have sought,
And tried them all but found it not,
Until the New Victor it came out,
And now I have one without a doubt.

It runs so easy and sews so nice,
I would not be without it for any price.
Its self-setting needle is so neat,
And everything else is most complete.

It sews through thin, it sews through thick,
And when you sew it never sticks,
So when you sew, you have no trouble—
I'd have a VICTOR if it's price were double.

READ! READ! READ!

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL WHO ARE IN WANT OF A SEWING MACHINE.

The New Sewing Machine VICTOR has not its equal in the world for family sewing. It is made of the finest material and of most perfect finish, and no pains or expense is spared to make the Victor Sewing Machine, in all its points, fitted to meet the wants of every family in the land.

TWELVE GOOD REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD BUY THE VICTOR:

1.—It is the only Lock-Stitch Machine that has its needle Self-Setting.
2.—All lost motion can be readily taken up in all its parts.
3.—The needle being Straight, and Self-Setting, much of the perplexity and trouble to new beginners is avoided, as the needle cannot be set wrong.
4.—It has a positive Thread Controller and Tension, which enables it to sew with equal precision, from the most delicate texture to the heaviest material.
5.—It uses with equal facilty Silk, Linen, or Cotton Thread.
6.—It uses the same size thread on the under as on the upper side, and sews across the heaviest seam, or from one to many thicknesses of cloth, without change of needle, tension or thread.
7.—There are no springs or cog wheels to break and get out of order.
8.—It is the simplest and strongest family sewing machine of all the varieties now in use.
9.—Every motion is positive, and it runs light and easy.
10.—The shuttle is carried on an independent table, which prevents its wearing out, and at the same time does away with oiling, thus avoiding greasing the work.
11.—It is simple in its construction, and the most inexperienced person can operate and regulate it.
12.—Its price is as low as any other first-class machine, and should be tried by all who want a good, reliable machine.

This new machine can bs seen at the large Ware Room,
MRS. IRWIN'S BUILDING, ALLEGHENY St., BELLEFONTE, PA.
where all are invited to call and see it operate. Having confidence that the Victor will meet with public favor, we are willing, when parties desire to purchase, to send it to their homes on trial, with complete instructions how to use it. Every Machine is Warranted. Traveling Agents Wanted.

THE CURRANT WORM.—We are informed by Dr. E. Worcester, of Waltham, that the currant worm, so destructive to a favorite fruit may be fully and almost immediately destroyed by the use of carbolate of lime. The doctor tried the powder in many instances during the past summer, and found that while it was fully effective as hellobore, it was less disagreeable, less costly, and perfectly safe. The method of using it is to sprinkle it over the vines as soon as the worm makes its appearance, bringing it well in contact with the leaves, and soon the pest is destroyed. It needs but two or three applications. In this way, for a few cents, large quantities of currant bushes may be saved and the fruit allowed to mature, and no danger whatever being incurred. Neither the foliage nor the fruit is in any way injured by the carbolate of lime. It will be well for our readers to remember this now, as the fruit season is returning,—Boston Journal of Chemistry.

STARTLING FACTS.—Since the close of the rebellion not less than twenty-three thousand persons, black and white, have been scourged, banished, or murdered by the Kuklux Klans of the South. The victims of their horrible barbarity have been Republicans. Not a single Democrat has suffered. Loyalty to the United States Government brought persecution; disloyalty exemption.

Since the enforcement of the Kuklux acts by the present Administration peace and security have reigned throughout those States infested by the Klans. The defeat of this Administration will be the renewal of these organizations and a repetition of past outrages. Is there a Republican in the land base enough to be a party to so great a wrong? Millions of loyal men and women South are depending on our party and its strong arm of justice for continued protection. The Government must protect them.

A CHIMNEY THAT WILL NOT SMOKE.—The Scientific American gives the following hints to those who would 'build a chimney which will not smoke.' The chief points is to make the throat not less than four inches broad and twelve long; then the chimney should be abruptly enlarged to double the size, and so continued for one foot or more; then it may be gradually tapered off as desired. But the inside of the chimney, throughout its whole length to the top, should be plastered very smooth with good mortar, which will harden with age. The area of a chimney should be at least half a square foot, and no flues less than sixty square inches. The best shape for a chimney is circular, or many-sided, as giving less friction (brick is the best material, as it is a non-conductor,) and the higher above the roof the better.

THE Beaver Radical says: The Reading Railroad Company is coming to the front in politics. Having first secured the holding of the Democratic Convention at Reading—the seat of its power—it nominated one of its attorneys for Governor, and placed its President Mr. Gowen, at the head of the ticket for Constitutional Convention, with some four of its adherents as his colleagues. Mr. Clymer, the newly appointed Chairman of the Democratic State Committee is, or was recently, also an attorney of that Company.

The great corporations of the State intend, if possible, to be protected in the Constitutional Convention.

A LOT of jubilant Liberals and old-fashioned Democrats recently assembled in the parlor of a New York hotel, and told stories over the nomination of Greeley. This is the way the New York Herald puts it:

"One old Democrat said the party would have to swallow Greeley. but 'Lord,' said he, 'its like an emetic.'

"'That's just what the old Democracy have needed all along,' said Oliver. 'It'll do them good. They've been bilious. Now they'll get of over it.'

"'Well,' persisted an old Democrat, 'some of us will have to hold our noses to swallow him.'

"'And, I reckon,' said another Democrat, very quietly, 'I reckon he'll have to have hold his nose to swallow some of us.'"

REPUBLICAN STATE PLATFORM.

Below will be found the Resolutions adopted by the convention which placed in nomination Gen John F. Hartranft, Hon. Ulysses Mercur, Gen. Harrison Allen and the entire State Ticket. The Resolutions were written by that clear headed and efficient Republican—Russel Errett, Esq., and have the true ring. Republicans, workingmen and all honest Democrats, can safely stand upon this platform. Let them be carried out in good faith and there need be no fears entertained in regard to the salvation and perpetuity of the government either State or national:

1. That we reaffirm our devotion to the principles of the Republican party, and our belief that the continued existence of that party is necessary to the maintenance and success of those principles. The grand and fundamental idea of the equality of all men in political rights is not professed by any other party, and can be sustained faithfully only by those who are sincerely committed to it.

2. That the adoption of the thirteenth, fourteenth and fifteenth amendments to the Constitution of the United States has not been sufficiently acquiesced in by all to render certain and secure their permanent incorporation in that instrument, and hence the administration of the government can safely be entrusted only to that party which is heartily, and beyond question, committed to them, and the policy necessary to put them into successful operation.

2. That we are now, more than ever, called to sustain the policy of national protection to American industry. If the laborer is worthy of his hire, and a fair day's work entitles the worker to a fair day's pay, we must continue to throw the protecting arm of the government around those who toil for their daily bread. The protective policy alone makes labor contented and capital secure. It renders employment certain, and pay ample and satisfactory; whilst free trade means that our laborers and mechanics must either work for lower wages or that our factories should be closed through foreign competition, and the workingmen of the country deprived of employment.

4. That the public lands belong to the people, and should be reserved for the people. We, therefore, pronounce most decidedly against any further appropriation of the public lands in behalf of corporations or individuals. All lands not sold according to law should be open to preemption and actual settlement.

5. That we demand a continued adherence to the policy hitherto pursued, under Republican auspices, in our State and in the nation, of a steady and gradual reduction of the public debt, The interests of the people require that the most rigid economy should be practiced in the administration of both the Nation and the State governments, and that taxes should be reduced in both as rapidly as is consistent with the honorable maintenance of the public credit, and the certain extinguishment of all the public debt.

6. That we are earnestly in favor of the earliest possible removal of the duties on tea and coffee, and urge the prompt passage of the bill for that purpose now before Congress

7. That we heartily approve of the act of Gen. Grant in giving a trial to the plan of civil service reform. We demand that the plan, or any other that may be substituted in its place as better, shall have a fair and unembarrassed trial, that every effort shall be made to secure competent men for public service, and that honesty and incorruptibility shall be deemed qualifications as essential as competency and intelligence.

8. That the Republican party has given full evidence during the past eleven years of its ability to administer the government honestly, faithfully and successfully. It has, within that time, maintained the honor of our National flag at home and abroad; preserved the Union from disruption and restored it in its integrity; secured to all classes and conditions of men the rights given to them by their Maker, and having proclaimed liberty throughout all the land, unto all the inhabitants thereof, has given to that proclamation the full effect to which it was entitled; and we therefore, in its name, claim from the people a continuance of their confidence, and fearlessly challenge their scrutiny into its acts.

9. That we point with pride to the record of Gen. Grant's administration of the National Government. Not only has the weight of internal taxation been almost wholly removed from the people's shoulders, but three hundred millions of the national debt have been paid off—a result never before attained by any other people under like circumstances, and for which we are indebted to the rigid honesty strict economy and sterling integrity which the President has brought to the administration of a national affairs.

10. That we present his name for renomination to the Presidency, confident that the people will again rally to the support of the man who so nobly fought their battles; who, under the guidance through its struggle to maintain its existence, and who has since so successfully administered the affairs of the government as to command general admiration, at home and abroad.

11. That we will stand by the government in the foreign policy so firmly marked out and adhered to by President Grant. The honor of the nation, we feel, is safe in his hands, and the flag under which he never suffered defeat, will not be dishonored while he is kept in the front.

12. That we congratulate the people of Pennsylvania on the final accomplishment of the call for a convention to revise and amend the Constitution of the State and we earnestly urge upon our friends to see that delegates are chosen in their respective districts committed to the policy of incorporating in that instrument a clear and decisive prohibition of special legislation.

13 That we hereby declare our opposition to every effort to withdraw from the sinking fund of the Commonwealth, either by substitution, exchange or otherwise, any of the bonds, securities or moneys now pledged to it, and through it to the payment of the public debt of the Commonwealth, and our inflexible determination to preserve the same, inviolably, for the fulfillment of the Commonwealth's obligations.

14. That the oil producing, mining, lumbering and manufacturing interest of the State require protection from the efforts of dangerous combinations, and that such laws should be enacted by the General Assembly of this Commonwealth as will protect said interest, both in their development and the transportation of their productions to market.

15. That the thanks of our party are due to Governor John W. Geary, under whose lead our principles have twice been successfully vindicated in Pennsylvania; the State debt has been reduced during his administration; our soldiers orphans have been carefully cherished and educated; and our laws have been efficiently and wisely enforced. Under the necessity of parting with him as Governor, in conformity with the Constitution of the State, Governor Geary carries with him in his retirement the heartfelt wishes of its people for his future prosperity and happiness.

16. That we present with peculiar pride and especial confidence of their success, the names of Gen. John F. Hartranft for Governor, Ulysses Mercur for Supreme Judge, Gen. Harrison Allen for Auditor General, and the gentlemen this day named for delegates at large to the Constitutional Convention. They are all men worthy of an active and ardent support at the hands of the Republican party, and we call upon our friends throughout the State to rally as one man to secure their triumphant election.

17. That the President of this Convention, in connection with the candidates this day nominated for State officers, appoint the chairman and one Secretary of the State Central Committee, and that the State Committee be made up on the basis adopted last year, and the two years preceding.

To Dispeptics,
To Sufferers from Liver Complaint,
To those having no Appetite,
To those with broken down Constitutins
To Nervous People,
To Children Wasting Away,
To any with debilitated digesti'e Organs

Or suffering with any of the following Symptoms, which indicate Disordered Stomach or Liver.

such as Constipation, Inward Piles, Fullness or Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried and difficult breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Fever and Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, &c., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

Hoofland's German Bitters.

A Bitters without Alcohol or Spirits of any kind.

Is different from all others. It is composed of the pure Juices, or VITAL PRINCIPLE OF ROOTS, HERBS, and BARKS, (or, as medicinally termed, Extracts,) the worthless or inert portions of the ingredients not being used. Therefore in one Bottle of this Bitters there is contained as much medicinal virtue as will be found in several gallons or ordinary mixtures. The Roots, &c., used in this Bitters are grown in Germany, their vital principles extracted in that country by a scientific Chemist, and forwarded to the manufactory in this city, when they compounded and bottled. Containing no spirituous ingredients, this Bitters is free from the objections urged against all others: no desire for stimulants can be induced from their use, they cannot make drunkards, and cannot under any circumstances, have any but a beneficial effect.

Hoofland's German Tonic,

Was compounded for those not inclined to extreme bitters, and is intended for use in cases when some alcoholic stimulant is required in connection with the Tonic properties of the Bitters. Each bottle of the tonic contains one bottle of the Bitters, combined with pure SANTA CRUZ RUM, and flavored in such a manner that the extreme bitterness of the bitters is overcome forming a preparation highly agreeable and pleasant to the palate, and containing the medicinal virtues of the Bitters. The price of the Tonic is $1,50 per Bottle, which many persons think too high. They must take into consideration that the stimulant used is guaranteed to be of a pure quality. A poor article could be furnished at a cheaper price, but is it not better to pay a little more and have a good article! A medicinal preparation should contain none but the best ingredients; and they who expect to obtain a cheap compound, and be benefittad by it, will most certainly be cheated.

HON. GEORGE W. WOODWARD, formerly Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania at present Member of Congress from Pennsylvania, writes:

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1871.

I find "Hoofland's German Bitters" is a good tonic, useful in diseases of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in case of debility and want of nervous action in the system. Yours, truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

HON, JAS. THOMPSON, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania,

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1867.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my own experience of it.
Yours, with respect, JAS. THOMPSON.

HON. GEORGE SHARSWOOD, Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, June 1, 1868.

I have found by experience that "Heofland's German Bitters" is a very good tonic, relieving dyspeptic symptoms almost directly.
GEORGE SHARSWOOD

HON. JAS. M. WOOD, Ex-Mayor of Williamsport, Pa.

I take great pleasure in recommending "Hoofland's German Tonic" to any one who may be afflicted with Dyspepsia. I had the Dyspepsia so badly it was impossible to keep any food on my stomach, and I became so week, as not to be able to walk half a mile. Two bottles of Tonic effected a perfect cure. JAMES M. WOOD.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN REMEDIES

Are the medicines you require to purify the Blood, excite the torpid Liver to healthy action, and to enable you to pass safely through any hardships or exposure.

DR. HOOFLAND'S
PODOPHYLLIN,
Or Substitue for Mercury Pills.
TWO PILLS A DOSE.
The Most Powerful, Yet Innocent Vegetable Cathartic Known.

It is not necessary to take a handful of these Pills to produce the desired effect; two of them act quickly and powerfully, cleansing the Liver, Stomach and Bowels all impurities. The principal ingredient is Podophyllin, or the Alcoholic Extract of Mandrake, which is by many times more powerful, acting and searching than the Mandrake itself. Its peculiar action is upon the Liver, cleaning it speedily from all obstructions, with all the power of Mercury, yet free from the injurious results attached to the use of that mineral.

For all diseases, in which the use of a cathartic is indicated, these pills will give entire satisfaction in every case. They NEVER FAIL.

In cases of Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia and extreme costiveness, Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic should be used in connection with the Pills. The tonic effect of the Bitters or Tonic builds up the system. The Bitters or Tonic purifies the Blood, strengthens the Nerves, REGULATES the Liver, and gives strength, energy and vigor.

Keep your Bowels active with the Pills, and tone up the system with Bitters or Tonic, and no disease can retain its hold, or ever assail you.

Recollect that it is DR. HOOFLAND'S GERMAN REMEDIES that are so universally used and highly recomamended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. Miscellaneous.

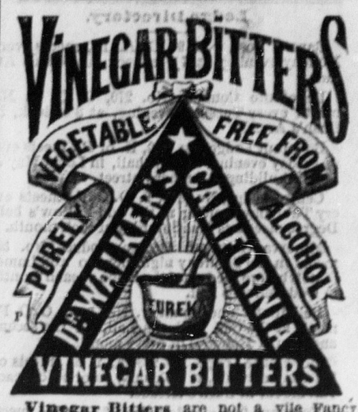
VINEGAR BITTERS



Vinegar Bitters are not a vile Fancy Drink, made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors, doctored, spiced, and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the native roots and herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the Great Blood Purifier and a Life-giving Principle, a Perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition, enriching it, refreshing and invigorating both mind and body. They are easy of administration, prompt in their action, certain in their results, safe and reliable in all forms of disease.

No Person can take these Bitters according to directions, and remain longun well, provided their bones are not destroyed by mineral poison or other means, and the vital organs wasted beyond the point of repair.

Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad Taste in the Mouth, Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia. In these complaints it has no equal, and one bottle will prove a better guarantee of its merits than a lengthy advertisement.

For Female Complaints, in young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these Tonic Bitters display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

They are a Gentle Purgative as well as a Tonic, possessing also the peculiar merit of acting as a powerful agent in relieving Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver and Visceral Organs and in Bilious Diseases.

For Skin Diseases, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt-Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions, or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul; your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure, and the health of the system will follow.

Grateful Thousands proclaim VINEGAR BITTERS the most wonderful Invigorant that ever sustained the sinking system.

Pin, Tape, and other Worms, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. Says a distinguished physiologist: There is scarcely an individual on the face of the earth whose body is exempt from the presence of worms. It is not upon the healthy elements of the body that worms exist, but upon the diseased humors and slimy deposits that breed these living monsters of disease. No system of medicine, no vermifuges, no anthelmintics, will free the system from worms like these Bitters.

Mechanical Diseases.—Persons engaged in Paints and Minerals, such as Plumbers, Typesetters, Gold-beaters, and Miners, as they advance in life, are subject to paralysis of the Bowels. To guard against this, take a dose of WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS twice a week.

Bilious, Remittent, and Intermittent Fevers, which are so prevalent in the valleys of our great rivers throughout the United States, especially those of the Mississippi, Ohio, Missouri, Illinois, Tennessee, Cumberland, Arkansas, Red, Colorado, Brazos, Rio Grande, Pearl, Alabama, Mobile, Savannah, Roanoke, James, and many others, with their vast tributaries, throughout our entire country during the Summer and Autumn, and remarkably so during seasons of unusual heat and dryness, are invariably accompanied by extensive derangements of the stomach and liver, and other abdominal viscera. In their treatment, a purgative, exerting a powerful influence upon these various organs, is essentially necessary. There is no cathartic for the purpose equal to DR. J. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS, as they will speedily remove the dark-colored viscid matter with which the bowels are loaded, at the same time stimulating the secretions of the liver, and generally restoring the healthy functions of the digestive organs.

Scrofula, or King's Evil, White Swellings, Ulcers, Erysipelas, Swelled neck, Goitre, Scrofulous Inflammations, Indolent Inflammations, Mercurial Affections, Old Sores, Eruptions of the Skin, Sore Eyes, etc., etc. In these as in all other constitutional Diseases, WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS have shown their great curative powers in the most obstinate and intractable cases.

Dr. Walker's California Vinegar Bitters act on all these cases in a similar manner. By purifying the Blood they remove the cause, and by resolving away the effects of the inflammation (the tubercular deposits) the affected parts receive health, and a permanent cure is effected.

The properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are Aperient, Diaphoretic, Carminative, Nutritious, Laxative, Diuretic, Sedative, Counter-Irritant, Sudorific, Alicrative, and Anti-Bilious.

The Aperient and mild Laxative properties of DR. WALKER'S VINEGAR BITTERS are the best safe-guard in cases of eruptions and malignant fevers, their balsamic, healing, and soothing properties protect the humors of the fauces. Their Sedative properties allay pain in the nervous system, stomach, and bowels, either from inflammation, wind, colic, cramps, etc.

Fortify the body against disease by purifying all its fluids with VINEGAR BITTERS. No epidemic can take hold of a system thus fore-armed.

Directions.—Take of the Bitters on going to bed at night from a half to one and one-half wine-glassfull. Eat good nourishing food, such as beef-steak, mutton chop, venison, roast beef, and vegetables, and take out-door exercise. They are composed of purely vegetable ingredients, and contain no spirit.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.—A meeting of the Republican voters of Bellefonte, and vicinity will be held in the REPUBLICAN WIGWAM, ON SATURDAY, AUG. 10, AT 8 O'CLOCK, P. M. Business important. Every Republican requested to be present.

CAKE WALK.—The Cake Walk and Festival, for the benefit of St. Paul's A. M. E. Church, will be held at the Wigwam, Allegheny street, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, Aug. 7th and 8th. Friends are cordially invited. A good time is anticipated.

THE amount of money necessary to secure the building of the Bellefonte Branch Railroad to connect with the L. C. & S. C. R. R., was subscribed at the meeting held in the Court House, in this Borough on Saturday last. Work will be commenced on this Branch in a short time.

ACCIDENT.—On Monday last, Mr. Chas. Smith, proprietor of the Old Fort Hotel, met with quite an accident while on his way to this place. His horse becoming frightened, jumped over an embankment, throwing Mr. Smith out of the buggy, bruising and cutting his one hand and leg severely, though not dangerously.

COURT commences at this place, on the fourth Monday of the present month, 26th inst. We publish this for the benefit of our readers in general, but particularly for our delinquent subscribers, as we expect THEM to call at that time and pay up, and thereby save costs, and at the same time relieve us of the necessity of publishing DUNS week after week. The space used in our columns for this purpose, we want to fill with interesting matter for those of our subscribers who are prompt to pay.

ACCIDENT.—On Saturday forenoon last, the Centre Hall and Spruce Creek stage, with its driver and passengers, met with an accident that might have proved most serious. The stage line referred to have a span of mules, one of which has a ruputation of being most vicious and a dangerous animal to handle. When the stage came to the large spring between Boalsburg and Pine Grove, on the property of James Fortney, the driver watered the mules, after which when placing the bucket on the stage, the mule kicked him, knocking him over, at the same time suddenly wheeling around, upseting the stage, dragging it and the passengers some distance before they could extricate themselves from their perilous situation. The passengers, Mr. William Heitzman and his son Richard, were quite badly hurt. Mr. Heitzman, was thrown on a stone, striking on his head, cutting it severely and his son was severely bruised about the head arms and legs, although neither wounds are dangerous. The driver was severely hurt on the leg by the kick of the mule. Mr. James Fortney and lady gave the injured prompt attendance and care, for which the injured most sincerely thank them. The stage line should have more gentle and safe animals, and thereby secure a better traveling patronage.

TUB RACE.—Our fun loving people will have an opportunity to witness the funniest of funny sports on next Saturday afternoon.

Some fifteen gentlemen will start at the bridge above the R. R. depot in ordinary washtubs with no propellors but their hands, and row to a point some fifty yards in the stream below.

The prizes are as follows: first race winner receives a handsome ice pitcher and salver, value twenty dollars, second race a handsome gold headed cane, value fifteen dollars; third, a meercham pipe, value ten dollars.

The prizes are on exhibition at the Bush House and the race is managed by Col. Wilkinson, the proprietor. The presentation will be made by Mr. D. G. Bush, in front of the hotel immediately after the race. A full brass band will be in attendsnce. The race opens at three o'clock. As tubs generally are a poor substitute for boats we imagine that many an ambitious tubbist will be tub-lame for his enthusiasm in aquatic sports of this kind.

NEW PAVEMENT.—A new concrete pavement has just been completed on High street, in front of Isaac Haupt's new building, the Odd Fellow's Block and extending to Spring Creek. The work was done by Geo. A. Bayard and John Harter, and is pronounced by good judges to be a superior piece of workmanship, equaling if not surpassing any other pavement of the kind in town. This is certainly a good improvement and adds much to the appearance of those handsome buildings. Messrs. Bayard & Harter, deserve much credit for the manner in which they have completed the job, and we would be much pleased to see them at work in putting down pavements in front of many other properties in our town.

HARDWARE.—There was a time when Bellefonte did not afford a hardware store, now it is a fixed institution.—Wilson & Hicks have everything that farmers, builders, or mechanics want. It is the greatest Hardware Store in Central Pennsylvania. Mr. Hagerman, the Book-keeper, and Mr. Harry Hicks, the salesman, are young men of high reputation, an honor to the country and a high honor to the store. They are the right men in the right place.

ACCIDENT.—A sad accident occurred on Monday, 29th of July, at Joseph Alexander's, a short distance below Unionville. Mr. Alexander was hauling grain assisted by Philip Iddings, aged about fifteen, son of Reuben Iddings. The young man was on the load they were taking to a barn, which unfortunately upset, throwing Philip some distance down the hill, fracturing his left arm just above the wrist. Dr. Russell was called and adjusted the injured limb rendering him ease in a short time. The young man, we hear, is getting along nicely.

MARKET.—The market house kept by Ed. Brown, on the corner of Bishop and Allegheny streets is a good institution. Mr. Brown has done a great deal to build up this town, and this year he has supplied us with vegetables. We understand that it is his intention to build a market house leading from Bishop to Logan street. What we want is a market house, and the man who leads in this direction will be a public benefactor.

WE are pleased to notice that the School Board of this borough are about to make some improvements at the new school building. A new fence is to enclose the grounds, the grounds are to be graded and additional facilities furnished for the out-door amusement of the scholars. We have some suggestions to make in this connection to the gentlemen of the Board:

Let the fence in front and at the sides of the school building be not only substantial but ornamental if it does cost something additional. The fence around the play ground, should be high, neat and quite substantial. The big, encouth looking hill should be neatly terraced: the dead trees should be taken up and live, healthy ones planted in their place. November is the time to plant them—there's where you made the mistake before.

On each side of the school building should be a neat solid hydrant with complete drainage. This arrangement will be far more convenient and will cost very much less than to be continually repairing the pipes in the school building which are always out of order. How great an ornament would be a neat fountain—playing in the center of the school grounds. It would be an invaluable attraction. Gentlemen of the school board, be enterprising, do something that will cause the rising generation to bless you! Dont forget to place in the belfry a good, large sweet sounding bell, that can be heard all over town, that will warn the tardy scholars and tell the parents when the school opens and closes, and we quietly suggest to Prof. Hastings and his corps of teachers that time would neither be lost or wasted in training the children in the simpler arts of horticulture. Let neat walks be made that shall be skirted with rows of varied flowers and shrubbery. It short, let the school grounds be ornamented.

A PANTHER ADVENTURE.—A correspondent informs us that as John Smithers was coming from Bates & McFarland's saw-mill, located in New Lancaster district, about 12 miles from Milroy, in coming down the mountain over an old log road, he met a panther cub.—The sight of the young imp did not disturb him half as much as the fact that where cubs are old ones are never very far off; and, sure enough, before he had time to determine on his course, the old she-devil not less than 8 feet long and proportioned in body, appeared in sight, looked at him fixedly, as much as to say "What do you want here?" and approached within ten feet of where he was standing, apparently examining him all over, as if cogitating whether his flesh would make as good a meal as that of a fawn, while the gray cat-like eyes of the cub peered at him with that inquisitive look which may be noted in all young animals. The situation was a trying one—it would have been so to any one unless endowed with superhuman courage. Smithers was unarmed, and it is almost needless to say frightened—terribly frightened; but he stood his ground, and as a last resource used his voice. He gave a yell, and then another, and still another, that reechoed far down towards Lock's Mills—such yells as he had never given before. The panther paused and looked around, and the young one exhibited evident signs of uneasiness at the strange noise. The old one could yell too, but she acknowledged herself beat and turned tail and fled one way, while as may be imagined Smithers went the other at no snail's pace. It was undoubtedly a great peril and narrow escape from instant death. —Lewistown Gazette.

CENTRE COUNTY AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY'S SCHOLARSHIP IN THE AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE OF PENNSYLVANIA.—As from the report of the examining committee, it appears that the competitors for the scholarship, although promising boys, have failed in coming up to the requisitions necessary to enter the Freshman's Class, the examination has been adjourned to Friday, the 23rd day of August, inst., when competitors are again invited to present themselves at the College, for examination in the following branches: Orthography, Reading, Penmanship, Geography, (Political and Mathematical) English Grammar, Mental and Written Arithmetic, and Elementary Algebra to Quadratics.

JAMES CALDER,
Prest. of the Agr'l Col. of Penn'a.

ON last Thursday, workmen were engaged in taking down the old Stonerstown Bridge, on the Broad Top Railroad, and a man named H. A. Syncrox, of West Virginia, was thrown, by some means not known to us, from a scaffold to the ground, a distance of seventy feet, and instantly killed. His body was forwarded to his friends by Express.—Huntingdon Journal, 31st ult.

APPLES.—The best apples we have seen for a long time were those brought us by Jos. Baker, Esq. They were the Summer Rose, and we have no hesitancy in saying that they are the best cooking apple we have ever seen. Mr. Baker is a good farmer, is always the first man to town with good potatoes, apples, beets and all kinds of vegetables.

MISS NILSSON, the singer, was married in London last week.

A CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.—On Monday a little four year old daughter of Robert Loyd, proprietor of the Railroad House, while playing on the stairs leading to the third story of the hotel, fell over the the balusters descending through the winding stairs to the first floor, a distance, probably, of over thirty feet. Strange to say, she received no other injuries than a broken thigh and an ugly wound of the chin, probably inflicted by the sharp corner of a step against which she might have struck in falling. She is recovering rapidly.

—A man, whose name we are unable to learn, had his leg broken by the fall of a tree upon him, while chopping in the wood some five miles below Kylertown, on Monday.

—James Tinney, a miner in the colliery of the Powelton Coal Co., this county, was caught under a fall of slate of several tons' weight, on Tuesday, and barely escaped with his life. His injuries consist of a dislocated wrist, spinal injury, and a completely crushed leg, below the knee, which the physicians fear it will be necessary to amputate. Had he been in a position to have received the bulk of the dislodged slate he would undoubtedly have been instantly crushed to death.

—On Tuesday, James Bottorf, who was engaged in peeling bark at J. Zimmerman & Co's camp, stood his axe against a tree for some purpose, and had scarcely done so when he slipped and fell striking one hand upon the blade of the axe, nearly severing it.

—The day following, Wednesday, a brother of the above named, Henry Bottorf, employed at Zimmerman's mill as board piler, met with an accident of a serious nature. While engaged with some of the other hands in repairing something connected with the apparatus which turns logs upon the carriage, he missed his footing and fell upon the circular saw, which was in motion receiving several cuts upon one arm and his body. Of all the narrow escapes from death this was probably as astonishing as any. It is almost impossible to imagine that a man could fall upon a revolving saw and not be injured past recovery.—Philipsburg Journal.

GRANT CAMPAIGN SONG.

Rally round our leaders, men,
We're arming for the fight,
We'll raise our glorious standard
And battle for the right,
To swell our gallant army,
Come from hill and plain,
Grant shall win the victory
For President again.

Chorus.—Let the drum and the bugle sound,
We'll march to meet the foe;
Let our joyous shouts resound
That all the land may know,
The sons of freedom in their might
Have come from hill and plain,
To make the brave Ulysses
Our President again.

He's a gallant hero,
And noble statesman, too,
He's safely brought our Ship of State
The darkest dangers through;
Let ev'ry brave and true man
Join our loyal band,
'Till loud resounds the victory
From mountain, vale and strand.
Chorus.—Let the drum, &c.

And when the battle's over,
We homeward turn again,
We'll join the lovely lasses
To music's thrilling strain;
And loud the anthem swelling,
To Grant our noble chief,
Who won our country's battles
And saved the land from grief.
Chorus.—Let the drum, &c.

Then rally round our leaders, men,
We're arming for the fight,
We'll raise our glorious standard,
And battle for the right,
To swell our gallant army,
Come from hill and plain,
Grant shall win the victory
For President again.
Chorus.—Let the drum, &c.

THE BUSH HOUSE.—We notice with pleasure the success of Messrs. W. H. Wilkinson & Co., proprietors of this house. Many men of capital here laughed at Col. D. G. Bush's enterprise when he built the hotel, said it was a poor investment, discouraged him all they could and showed their own enterprise by admiring the balance on their bank book. Mr. Bush was unfortunate for a year or two in getting capable parties to manage his house, but he never lost faith in his enterprise and now having secured the right men, we have abundant proof of his wisdom in building the hotel merely as an investment, not to speak of the advantage it is to the town. Mr W. H. Wilkinson is a gentleman who believes that hotels should be conducted by gentlemen, and with his graceful, genial young partner, Mr. Frank Grice, has demonstrated that education, and refinement are not hindrances to his success.

Every appointment in and about the hotel is regulated with mathematical precision. This principle so rigidly applied and carried out brought its success, and now the hotel is filled to overflowing with boarders from the cities. The guest will find the table equal to the hotels at any of the other resorts, and we doubt much if the same accomodations and luxuries can be procured any place else at such moderate charges.

The evenings at the Bush House are gay and charming. The lady boarders have inaugurated charades, theatricals, musicals, dancing and what not. Mrs. Wilkinson, the lady of the house is

"the gracefulest lady of them all"

and has won for herself much respect and admiration for her kindness and attention to the sick.

A contract has been made to put an additional wing of one hundred feet, containing seventy rooms, to the house, to meet the demands of next summer.

And thus the unmanageable Elephant of the past has grown into a larger, but a perfectly manageable and paying institution of the present.

HOW TO GO WEST.—This is an enquiry which every one should have truthfully answered before he starts on his journey, and a little care taken in examination of Routes will in many cases save much trouble, time and money.

The "C., B. & Q. R. R.," running from Chicago, through Galesburg to Burlington, and the "I., B. & W. Route," running from Indianapolis, through Bloomington to Burlington, have achieved a splendid reputation in the last two years as the leading Passenger Routes to the West. At Burlington they connect with the B. & M. R. R. and from the great Burlington Route, which runs direct through Southern Iowa to Nebraska and Kansas, with close connections to California and the Territories; and passengers starting from Centre County, on their way westward, cannot do better than to take the BURLINGTON ROUTE.

"This Line has published a pamphlet called "How to go West," which contains much valuable information; a large correct map of the Great West, which can be obtained free of charge by addressing the General Passenger Agent B. & M. R. R., Burlington, Iowa. no-28-4-mo.

A USEFUL INVENTION.—A great improvement in boots and shoes. "Evans' American Gaiter," patented March 28, 1871, by Thomas R. Evans, of Philadelphia. Comfortable, Stylish and Genteel. Suitable for the Pedestrian of Ball Room and every season in the year. Is very easy to get on or off, has no seam below the instep. Has two styles when on the foot, one looking like a Boot, the other a combined Shoe and Gaiter. Makes a splendid fit and easy on the foot. The large number of these gaiters already manufactured and being worn in our town gives proof that they are in every respect as represented. Those who have used one pair, are sure to call for the second. For sale and made to measure by Graham & Son, Manufacturers and Dealers in Fine Boots and Shoes, Bishop Street, Bellefonte, Pa.

A WARNING TO SCOLDING WIVES.—A few days ago a woman in Columbia was "jawing" her children, the neighbors, a hired girl and everybody in general, when her husband entered and interposed a mild word. She opened her mouth for an angry reply, but a spasm contracted her check, her lower jaw fell, and she could neither speak nor shut her mouth, but remained in that condition; her tongue hung out, and her eyes nearly started out of their sockets. She had dislocated her jaw-bone in her violent effort to make a stinging reply to her husband. A surgeon was called, who reduced the dislocation, bound up her head, and prescribed a quiet diet. The old man is now enjoy the quietest time he has had for forty years.

PLEASING pictures taken at Glenn's mammoth picture car. We do not know wether it is in the Instrument or in the Chemical Laboratory, that Glenn succeeds so admirably in giving pleasing Pictures to his numerous customers that patronize him. But so it is. He invariably succeeds, including those difficult pictures of the little warblers (infants) which he gives special attention.

Suffer little Infants to come and have their little "phiz" taken. Parents forbid not, for Glenn is the Artist, he secures the little smiles and innocent expressions to the joy of fond parents.

THIS is the way the Cedar Rapids Republican puts it: "Don't borrow a newspaper; nearly all the prevailing epidemics are spread in this way. If you don't want the small-pox take your paper direct from the publisher."

MARRIED.

On the 1st inst., at the M. E. Parsonage, in Millesburg, by Rev J. W. Cleaver, Jackson Fetzer and Mary E. Johnston.

On July 4th, 1872, at the Baptist Parsonage in Eagleville, by the Rev. A. B. Runyan, Mr. Wm. T. Walker and Miss Annie Confer, all of Centre county, Pa.

DIED.

On the 2nd inst., in Eagleville, Centre Co., Pa., Mrs. Julia Kunes, wife of Henry Kunes, aged 53 years, 4 months, 19 days.

The deceased was highly esteemed by all who knew her. She came as near filling the Golden Rule as any we have ever known. She was kind to all, spoke evil of none. Her life commended the religion she professed. A better friend in affliction could not be found. It could be said of her as it was of the master, that "She went about doing good." The deep grief manifested at her funeral, by all, indicated how effectually she had won the respect and confidence of the entire community. The lines of the Poet are very appropriate:

"She the Holy one and weekly,
Who the Cross of suffering bore;
Folded her pale hands so meekly,
Speaks with us on earth no more.

And with her the being beauteous,
Who unto my youth was given;
More than all things else to love me,
And is now a Saint in Heaven.

With a slow and noiseless footstep,
Comes that messenger divine;
Takes the vacant chair beside me,
Lays her gentle hand in mine.

And she sits and gazes at me.
With those deep yet tender eyes;
Like the Stars so still and saint-like
Looking downward from the skies.

Uttered not, yet comprehended
Is the Spirit's voiceless prayer;
Soft rebukes in blessings ended
Breathing from her lips of air.

O, though oft depressed and lonely.
All my fears are laid aside;
If I but remember only,
Such as these have lived and died."

SPECIAL NOTICES.

HON. GEORGE SANDERSON,

Mayor of the City of Lancaster Pa., writes: "MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS is extensively known and used, and so successful are its curative powers that it has become as familiar as a Household Word and a necessary addition in the medical requirements of every family. Having used it myself and knowing others who have used it with beneficial results I can only add that in my opinion it is the best remedy ever introduced for the cure of the numerous ills to which flesh is heir."

HON. THADDEUS STEVENS M. C.,

Recommending MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS to a friend, pronounced it the most wonderful combination of medicinal herbs he ever saw.

☞BY ONE OF THE LEADING PHYSICIANS of Philadelphia city.—A careful examination of mortuary statistics establishes the fact that one adult person out of every six dies of consumption, and so alarmingly is this disease gaining the ascendancy over all other ills to which flesh is heir, that its approach to one's immediate circle is regarded with perfect horror. If you will carefully examine the records of Materia Medica you will invariably discover that the general want of success in treating diseases has not been a deficiency of pathological knowledge of the functions affected, but of a suitable compound that would act upon the disease and all the sympathetic affections.

This want has at last been met in the Bitter Wine of Iron, prepared by the celebrated Dr. E. F. Kunkle, No 259 North Ninth street, Philadelphia. This excellent compound can be taken by persons with the most delicate stomach without any debilitating effect always giving strength and largely increasing the nervous energy of the patient. In all cases of pulmonary complaints it is admirably adapted to relieve the severity of the symptoms in the advanced stages of the disease, or to arrest it in its incipiency. If you want something that will give you strength, a good appetite, build up your constitution, and in place of moroseness and a lack of energy, give you a brisk and vigorous feeling, try Kunkel's Bitter Wine of Iron. It has already received the meed of praise from thousands who have tested its virtues, and for many years maintained its reputation with unfaded popularity.

Price $1 per bottle. E. F. KUNKEL, Sole Proprietor, No. 259 North Ninth street, below Vine, Philadelphia.
